FREEMAN, Mrs. Jessie Wheeler.

Dear Mrs. Freeman:

TOWN DOWN EAST was placed on our order list, and we expect to have a lending copy for the library soon. Now we wonder about the Maine Author Collection, which we mentioned the day you called.

We explained, did we not, that this is a permanent exhibit collection of books written by Maine people? The volumes are inscribed and presented, and it is really a fascinating and valuable collection which constantly attracts visitors and students.

Of course we hope that you will want to inscribe a copy of TOWN DOWN EAST for inclusion on these shelves. It would give us pleasure to add it to the collection.

Our good wishes for the success of this delightful collection of verses continue, and we trust it is only the first of your books of poetry, and that we may anticipate others from time to time.

Sincerely yours

Dear Mrs. Jacob:

I am not forgetting your invitation to contribute a copy of my TOWN DOWN EAST to your collection of Maine authors and I shall feel honored to do so. It is just a matter of getting out to Augusta to bring it and that I hope to do on Friday of this week.

I hope that the copy that you ordered for circulation has reached you. I think that you told me that you ordered through Campbell's Book Store. They have had copies in stock for some time, I feel sure.

Sincerely,

Jessie Freeman

Dear Mrs. Freeman:

Thank you very much for making available to us the copies of JUNIPER AND WHITE PINE,
the new Maine Poetry Fellowship anthology.

It is a delightful blend of the work of some old friends and a few new names. We are glad to have a copy for lending, too,
and appreciate your thought of the library.

Sincerely yours

hmj
